

The Session...

“The Interview”

Join Mark Yasewicz, Senior Recruiter with Harvard University, for a lively, interactive conversation about interviewing and making your best effort to “stand out” from other candidates.

Rather than sitting through a formal presentation, participants will have the opportunity to share some of their own experiences and, together, we will identify some of the best ways to ensure a successful interview.

Although this session involves the group’s active participation, no individual is required to contribute beyond their own comfort level!
